

Statement of participation

Amanda George

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Early years team work and leadership

This 8-hour free course explored aspects of teamwork and leadership for early years practitioners, in different settings and stages in their careers.

Issue date: 9 April 2018

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.
Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/childhood-youth/early-years-team-work-and-leadership/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: E105_1

Early years team work and leadership

<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/childhood-youth/early-years-team-work-and-leadership/content-section-0>

Course summary

This free course, Early years team work and leadership, explores aspects of teamwork and leadership for early years practitioners.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand the concept of leadership in the early years
- demonstrate an awareness of factors that influence leadership and teamwork
- understand how teamwork can support leadership skills
- reflect on personal leadership and teamwork skills.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Thinking about leadership

Section 2

Working in teams

Section 3

Revisiting leadership

Section 4

Conclusion