

Statement of participation

Amanda George

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Living with the internet: learning online

This 4-hour free course showed how to ensure that learning online is both practical and safe. It also looked at basic skills such as file management.

Issue date: 1 April 2018

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.
Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/science-maths-technology/computing-and-ict/information-and-communication-technologies/living-the-internet-learning-online/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: T180_9

Living with the internet: learning online

<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/science-maths-technology/computing-and-ict/information-and-communication-technologies/living-the-internet-learning-online/content-section-0>

Course summary

Learning online is one of the great advantages of information technology. This free course, Living with the internet: learning online, will help you establish a safe and comfortable working environment to ensure that your study time at the computer screen does not impact on your health. It also looks at the basic skills for online study, such as file management and installing software.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- tackle computer-based tasks more confidently
- demonstrate awareness of preferred learning styles.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Overview

Section 2

Conclusion