

Statement of participation

Amanda George

has passed the free course including all mandatory tests for:

Introducing the voluntary sector

This 24-hour course provided knowledge and skills to apply to work and volunteering and everyday life.

Issue date: 14 April 2018

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.
Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/money-management/introducing-the-voluntary-sector/content-section-overview>

COURSE CODE: VOLB_1

Introducing the voluntary sector

<http://www.open.edu/openlearn/money-management/introducing-the-voluntary-sector/content-section-overview>

Course summary

This free course taught some of the distinctive features and values of the voluntary sector and how organisations are funded and involve volunteers and other stakeholders.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- demonstrate a basic understanding of what is meant by the voluntary sector, its values, contribution and distinctive features
- recognise and use some of the terms and concepts associated with understanding the voluntary sector
- use and apply your knowledge about the voluntary sector to your own work or volunteering experience
- link your learning with your own personal or career goals.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Week 1

What is the voluntary sector?

Week 2

Values and beliefs

Week 3

Structure and functions of the voluntary sector

Week 4

Who funds voluntary and community organisations?

Compulsory badge quiz (score 89%)

Week 5

Introducing stakeholders

Week 6

Power, engagement and empowerment

Week 7

The role of volunteering

Week 8

Next steps for working and learning in the voluntary sector

Compulsory badge quiz (score 87%)